Italian courses for company staff

Our staff boasts years of experience in language training. All of our teachers, native speakers, have obtained a DITALS certification of IInd level by the University for Foreigners of Siena.

We have a communicative approach to language teaching, aimed at developing the skills of comprehension and oral/written production, together with a gradually introduced inductive study of grammar.

Our customers are assisted from the moment they decide to start a language training till the end of it.

Our training offer includes different types of courses:

Standard Italian: italian language course, ideal for those who want to live and work in Italy.

Business Italian: ideal for those who wish to improve their knowledge of the language of business.

Tailor Made Italian: designed for professionals and students, the course focuses on specific areas.

Courses are available in the following formulas:

- group
- mini-group (2-5 persons)
- one-to-one
